MATTHEW 6:25-34 / NOVEMBER 15

SERMON DISCUSSION GUIDE

Read and Pray

This week's sermon focuses on Matthew 6:25–34. With your group, read the passage together. Jesus challenges us to trust our heavenly Father's care, seek his kingdom first, and leave tomorrow in his hands. After reading, spend time in silent prayer. What stood out to you? What might the Spirit be pressing into your life from this message?

Sermon Recap (to apply, not rehash the sermon)

Review the sermon with your group. Focus especially on:

- Trust your Father's care: God knows our needs and cares for us. Our significance and security are found in him, not money.
- Seek first your Father's kingdom: Following Jesus means making his kingdom our first priority, including how we spend, save, and give.
- Live sufficiently; give extravagantly: God calls us to steward what he has given us for his purposes, rather than simply accumulating more for ourselves.
- Leave the future in your Father's hands: Tomorrow will have troubles, but the God who sustains us today will be faithful tomorrow.

Group Discussion

1. The sermon described two ways people tend to approach money: spending for enjoyment or saving for security. Which tendency do you identify with more? Why?
2. Look again at Matthew 6:25–32. What reasons does Jesus give us not to worry? What do his illustrations teach us about our heavenly Father?
3. In verse 33, Jesus tells us to "seek first the kingdom of God." What does it mean to put God's kingdom first while still being responsible with our finances and everyday needs?
4. The sermon challenged us to "live sufficiently and give extravagantly." How might that principle change the way you think about spending, saving, and generosity?
5. Jesus tells us not to worry about tomorrow. Where are you currently struggling to trust God with your future? What would it look like to place that concern in his hands?

WEEKLY REFLECTION QUESTIONS

REFLECT:
What do your financial decisions reveal about where you find security?

RESPOND:
What is one practical step you can take this week to put God's kingdom first?

REACH:
How could greater generosity with what God has entrusted to you help advance his kingdom?

PRAYER

- ☐ Thank God for his faithful care and provision, and ask him to help you trust him with your needs.
- ☐ Ask God to reveal where worry or a desire for security is keeping you from putting his kingdom first.
- ☐ Pray for generous hearts that joyfully use what God has given us to bless others and advance the gospel.
